

OUR INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

As top management of CLEARITY CHEMISTRY, we undertake to fulfill that principles and conditions of ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015, ISO 45001: 2018 and improve the Integrated Management System in line with compliance obligations.

Our goals;

- ✓ To be a leader corporation in the future and to maintain high competitive conditions as offering high quality the products belong to the companies we cooperate in international and domestic markets or products we developed products.
- ✓ To provide the continuity of customer satisfaction by meeting the needs of our customers at the highest level.
- ✓ To perform production and sales in accordance with compliance obligations by following national and international legal regulations.
- ✓ To provide the development of our quality standards as certification of the products and services we offer in accordance with international and domestic quality standard.
- ✓ To increase the sense of belonging in the company as providing the participation and development of our employees.
- ✓ To create permanent and long-term potential cooperations as achieving our financial targets, as providing high profit to our business partners and suppliers.
- ✓ Compliance with recovery / conversion principles in Environmental Protection Studies
- ✓ To contribute to the development of society as promoting environmental awareness for providing the sustainability of natural resources that future generations will also need.
- ✓ To increase the awareness of our employees, suppliers and customers about quality-environment-occupational health and safety.
- ✓ To provide that our products are prepared and used with the awareness of Environmental Management System,
- ✓ To minimize the risk of accident and health deterioration that may occur by performing risk analysis,
- ✓ Following all the process steps, determining the areas that can improve quality, environment, occupational health and safety Management systems and allocating necessary resources,

Top Management is responsible for making the IMS Policy available to all people working in or on behalf of the organization and making it public.

GENERAL MANAGER

14.01.2020